WHAT IS SAHODARA PAWURA?

Sahodara Pawura, "A Tapestry of Inclusion" is a phenomenal initiative aimed at creating a supportive and inclusive environment for the differently abled. We gather with purpose in a world where harmonious notes of laughter blend to acknowledge the various needs and abilities of differently abled individuals and venture to provide activities and experiences that will leave a footprint in their lives and nurture a sense of belonging.

This project will focus on uniting communities to highlight their role in providing acceptance, understanding and support for differently abled individuals. There is a total of 32 children in the home.

Place: Ash-Shifaa
(Home for Children with Special Needs).
Kotikawatta

OBJECTIVES

"Sahodara Pawura" is dedicated to providing comprehensive support to differently abled individuals, focusing on their emotional, mental, and physical well-being.

- Foster a supportive and inclusive environment: Create a welcoming and comfortable space for differently abled children and their families.

- Promote holistic well-being: Address the emotional, mental, and physical needs of participants.

- Empower individuals: Encourage personal growth, self-expression, and independence.

- Build a strong community: Foster a sense of belonging and support among participants and their families

- Make a lasting impact: Leave a positive and enduring legacy on the lives of differently abled children.

PHASES

- Phase 1: Illuminating minds

This phase focuses on the guest speaker's rich and bright wisdom that will guide all the participants to listen to the voice that provides valuable insights and knowledge about the differently abled, their needs, the challenges and experiences faced by them and their family, and how to support and communicate with them effectively in order to unlock hidden doors and prosper understanding.

- Phase 2: Symphony of Magic

This phase is a fun, inclusive, and educational adventure for the differently-abled as they embark on a journey into the green oasis of Viharamahadevi Park. Here, we will engage in exciting activities tailored to diverse needs, where abilities can flourish like flowers in a garden. They will discover a world of sensory exploration and learning surrounded by the natural beauty of the park. This memorable visit will foster a sense of belonging, help build social skills, deepen our appreciation for the natural world in a vibrant, and engage in fun activities.

Date - 19th January 2025
Venue - Viharamahadevi Park, Colombo

- Phase 3: Visionary Sahodarayo

This phase involves a workshop of dreams where new worlds are whirled in the name of art. Through colours and textures, they will be able to sharpen their creative skills with each stroke forging connections, and preserving cherished memories. The souvenirs crafted from laughter and cheer will serve as a record of the good moments experienced during the project. Additionally, heartfelt gifts will be distributed as a token of appreciation to spread the radiance of happiness.
